Its nomination time again!

It is the time of the year when most if not all Rotary clubs throughout the world nominates candidates for the different board positions to lead their respective clubs in the next Rotary year. For the Rotary Club of South Triangle, it is tonight.

The positions to be nominated on are vice-president for internal affairs, vice-president for external affairs, secretary, treasurer, finance secretary and seven directors to head club service II, vocational service, community service, international service, service to new generations, the Rotary Foundation and the club chronicler. Also to be nominated is the club president for RY 2008-2009.

During the club assembly and before the nomination begins, the club may want to deliberate if it would like to hold nominations for the club president for RY 2009-2010 as what is being done in Rotary International, our district and some clubs.

Happy birthday to PP Frank Abueva who had an advance celebration last Tuesday at his new residence.

To take advantage of the gathering at PP Frank's birthday celebration, RCST had

President's Corner

The very highlight of events after "All Saints Day" will be our 15th Charter anniversary. As per arrangement, we are going to hold it at the Amoranto Multipurpose Hall along Sct. Chuatoco St. Since our theme for this Rotary Year is "Lead the Way", we are to dress as recognizable world leaders (past and present). The group, aside from our assessment, will pool 250 pesos from each member to be given as an award to the most outstanding costume of the night. Secretary Cynthia and I are going to be the judge for the most outstanding attire of the night – Spouses and guests included. Please do not forget to submit your advertisements for our souvenir program.

Last Tuesday, we had a special board meeting coinciding with the birthday of PP Frank at his new residence along Commonwealth. The only topic discussed were plans for the upcoming Charter Anniversary. We had overflowing drinks and sumptuous food most specially the "laing" made by Frank's chef. We had a tour of Frank's new home which included water draped master's bedroom and his Japanese toilet. I wish to thank and greet PP Frank for this memorable affair.

On November 24, we are slated to have our very first shoot fest contest at Camp Tomas Karingal in Sikatuna Village. Since there will be a competition of the Philippine Practical Shooters on that date, many of the PPSA shooters will be out of town. We want to encourage everyone to bring in his or her shooter friends and acquaintances. This affair may also be a venue for us to recruit new blood into the club. The fees will be standard like most competitions in the country – 500 pesos. We shall start the affair strictly at 8:00 am.

The month of November is a month of remembrance. All Souls Day and Our Charter Anniversary are times that we reflect on the past. I hope that by remembering our love ones who have passed away and the origins of our present company, we can look forward to a better future. Rekindling the past is also a way of thanking those who in some ways have helped up be what we all are now. Happy Halloween to everyone.

Oct. 26 and the Interact induction sometime in December. RCST's presence would be very much appreciated. Ms. Fides is also requesting that we sent her the invitation to attend to the Interact DISTAS to be her basis to write and ask permission to the parents of our Interactors to attend. Ms. also insinuated if we could again give the interact officers Rotary pins similar to what the club gave them last year.

Words of Wisdom

Read the RCST Bulletin in the internet at

Picture yourself

Think of yourself not in terms of your problems. Instead, identify yourself with your most promising possibilities.

Think of yourself not in terms of your regrets or disappointments. Instead, consider all the valuable and useful lessons you've learned.

The way you picture yourself has a powerful effect on the reality of your life. And you can picture yourself any way you choose.

Picture yourself expressing the best that is within you. Picture yourself living fully, loving sincerely, giving gladly, and bringing unique value to each moment.

Picture yourself as the joyful, creative and effective person you know you can be. Picture yourself dancing swiftly and successfully past each challenge and limitation.

You hold in your mind a mental picture of yourself. The quality and substance of that picture make all the difference in the actions you take and the results you get.

Make that picture brilliantly superb, and your life will follow right along.
